BEN GOSLING FULLER

Director

BAFTA-nominated Ben Fuller's route into directing started in film & tv camerawork at the BBC. He left the corporation in 1993 to direct 'Have I Got News For You' and 'The Big Breakfast', and has since worked with a wide range of actors and performers in drama, comedy and entertainment. His short film 'China' was shown at Edinburgh and on Channel Four, and has also contributed as a writer to shows like 'TV To Go', 'The People Vs Jerry Sadowitz' and 'Swivel On The Tip'. He steered the BBC's 'Dead Ringers' through three successful series, moved into narrative drama with Baby Cow's Johnny Vegas vehicle 'Ideal', followed by two much acclaimed series of 'That Mitchell and Webb Look' for which he was nominated for a BAFTA in 2010.
