

HEIDI MILLER*Costume Designer*

Having just completed HOTEL TALIBAN in Morocco, and with six feature film costume design credits to her name, not to mention numerous dramas and docu-dramas for television, Heidi is equally at ease with period as she is with contemporary. She's worked on pretty much all genres, from drama doc and action to comedy, and all of which makes her a popular choice for producers and directors in features and television alike. Based in London, she is available for work worldwide. Visit www.heidimillers.blogspot.com for more information and to view some examples of her work.
