KATE FORBES

Costume Designer

With the completion of 'Unmade Beds', her first feature film as Costume Designer in 2008, and with over fifteen years experience in costume design and styling, Kate's portfolio embraces film, television, fashion and editorial, music videos and commercials. Nothing if not diverse in her influences, Kate's creative approach has brought vibrancy to television's 'Suburban Shootout' and more recently to the east London setting of 'Unmade Beds', due for release at the end of the year, as well as highly original styling to the pages of many fashion magazines from iD to Italian Vogue and a plethora of fine art film and performance pieces.
