MARCUS WOOKEY

Production Designer / Art Director

Complementing his background in art history and fine art, Marcus's tangible skills as a troubleshooting art director on such films as 'Sexy Beast' and 'Chaos' have served to back up his credentials as a modern and contemporary production designer. In demand for feature films as well as commercials and docu-drama, he is known for being a 'hands on' designer, never far from where the action is supporting both his director and his crew.
