ROSS CLARKSON HKSC ACS

Cinematographer / Camera Operator

Multi-award winner Ross Clarkson has been shooting action pictures for the last ten years. Starting his career modestly as a news cameraman in Australia, he moved to Hong Kong in 1993 and has been both cinematographer and operator of choice for the likes of Ringo Lam, Jean-Claude van Damme and Dolph Lundgren ever since. An accredited member of the Hong Kong Society of Cinematographers and the Australian Cinematographers' Society, Ross was 2006 Gold Winner in Queensland's ACS awards for 'The Russian Specialist' (aka 'The Mechanik'). Based both in Hong Kong and Europe, he has worked all over Europe, north America and the Far East and is available for work worldwide.
