

REG TRAVISS

Director

From a Prince's Youth Trust grant in 1995 for a short film he both directed and produced, and subsequent work at the BBC directing idents, Reg's directing career accelerated sharply with the release of his first feature 'Joy Division' in 2006. An international co-production, budgeted at £4 million, it achieved industry-wide recognition as well as commercial success for Reg. His second feature 'Psychosis' was completed and released in 2010 and his third film, prison drama 'Screwed' was released theatrically and on DVD through Lionsgate in 2011.

For 2012, he's attached to the London-set Canyon Creek picture 'Silvertown' and he's also working on a script entitled 'Man Of A Thousand Cuts'. It's a story spanning three decades and based on the life and times of legendary East End gangster Jack Spot .

His experience as a director has taken him all over Europe and North America. He's worked with crews of over 200, shot with multi-camera set-ups, and directed action, horror and thriller, working with up to hundreds of extras.

Reg is based in London and works through his company Kingsway Films.
